

10

10

CHAS. F. ARTES,
Jeweler & Optician,
 Watches, Diamonds, Jewelry, Silverware, Clocks, Bric-a-Brac, Spectacles and Eye-Glasses.
Eyes tested free of Repairing Fine charge by our grad- Watches and Clocks uate optician.
 NO. 126 MAIN ST., EVANSVILLE, IND.

Lumber and Building Material, John S. McCorkle,
 EVANSVILLE, IND.
 Frames, Glazed Sash, Doors, Blinds, Moulding and casing, etc. etc. etc. etc. etc. etc. etc.
 Lath, Weatherboarding, Yellow Pine Flooring and Ceiling. Write for prices and estimates on Houses, Store Fixtures, etc., &c.

Teeth! Teeth! Teeth!
 Until July 1st we will fill set of Teeth for $5.00
FIT GUARANTEED.
 A PROTECTOR OF THE GUMS with all work
 TAPER EXTRACTION
 PAIN EXTRACTOR
 HYPODERMIC, per tooth
 SILVER FILLINGS
 NEW YORK DENTAL PARLORS, 408 & 410 N. 3rd St.
 OPEN EVERY EVENING UNTIL 10 O'CLOCK. EVANSVILLE, IND.

Stanford Weekly Herald.
 WEDNESDAY, JUNE 9.
 Take your stock to Field's Livery Stable.
 The best Oxford Tie for $1.00 in at Carson & Co's.
 For anything in the seasonal line call on E. H. Hamilton.
 Mrs. Ida Pendleton is having a well boxed new residence.
 The business of the Steamer Janie has increased each trip.
 Call on A. D. White for screen doors, windows and screen wire cloth.
 Mr. Jas. A. Thomas is having the work of his brick residence completed.
 Remember that A. D. White is head quarters for anything you want at low prices.
 The crops in Ohio county are looking exceedingly well in spite of the recent drouth.
 There will be communion service at the Presbyterian church Sunday.
 All are cordially invited to attend.
 The ladies of the C. P. Church will meet today, at nine o'clock, for the purpose of sewing on the drouth fund.
 Bring on your wool, your shoe and daughters. You can buy Hies, Hies and Dress Goods with wool at Carson & Co's.
 Do you know you cannot afford to miss the fish-fry at Rockport June 9th.
 It is going to be the most interesting of the best and everything first-class.
 Bait very reasonable. 200T Did you ever attend a fish-fry? The one at Rockport June 9th, will be the biggest and most largely attended ever in the Green River country. Come and see.
 The fair grounds are being improved and a new fence is being put around
 it. The fair this year from present indications bids well to be the most successful, and prosperous one ever held here.
 Samuel P. Deakrook, lecturer and author, State Prisoner Kentucky Penitent Institution, will lecture at the court house in Hartford June 9th, 1897, at 8 o'clock p. m. Admission free to all.
 A large number of our boys will participate in the encampment in Louisville the early part of July.
 Hartford is justly proud of her continent of the State Guard and we are sure that they will make a creditable and highly commendable showing.

BEAVER DAM RAILROAD TIME TABLE
EAST-BOUND.
 Local 7:00 a. m.
 Fast 7:30 a. m.
 Local 8:00 a. m.
WEST-BOUND.
 Local 6:00 p. m.
 Fast 6:30 p. m.
 Local 7:00 p. m.

For Fertilizer at Carson & Co's.
 Patrons Field's elegant "line" line.
 We will buy your Bacon and Ham at Carson & Co's.
 For ice cream freezers at low prices see A. D. White.
 Bring in your country produce—we pay the highest market prices.
 PATRONS.
 A small lot of Wood will buy a big lot of Dry Goods at Carson & Co's.
 The general public as well as Macons are invited to attend the fish-fry at Rockport, June 9th, and they are going to attend.

A number of our people will attend the commencement exercises and receptions at the West Kentucky College at South Carrollton, tomorrow.
 When in Hartford, stop at the commercial Hotel. Home comforts, the best of food and everything first-class.
 Bait very reasonable. 200T
 Did you ever attend a fish-fry? The
 one at Rockport June 9th, will be the
 biggest and most largely attended ever
 in the Green River country. Come
 and see.
 The fair grounds are being improved
 and a new fence is being put around
 it. The fair this year from present
 indications bids well to be the most
 successful, and prosperous one ever
 held here.

Samuel P. Deakrook, lecturer and
 author, State Prisoner Kentucky Peni-
 tent Institution, will lecture at the
 court house in Hartford June 9th, 1897,
 at 8 o'clock p. m. Admission free to all.
 A large number of our boys will
 participate in the encampment in Louisville the early part of July.
 Hartford is justly proud of her con-
 tinent of the State Guard and we are
 sure that they will make a credit-
 able and highly commendable showing.

Whether you are a Mason or not, or a woman, you cannot afford to miss the address of Mr. Thos. C. Peterson and Judge Thompson at the fish-fry June 9 at Rockport.

Schuyler is agent for the Globe Tackling Co., Louisville, and is prepared to make your clothing in first class style. Suits from $10 to $30. Fit guaranteed. Pants $1.50 and up.

Rev. J. F. Hies, of Owensboro will begin a meeting in Beaver Dam the second Sunday in this month. The meeting will continue several days if the interest warrants it.

Mr. Dan Treay, for many years a resident of Hartford, and who has been living in Louisville the past year, has just been in his residence and told us that he was glad to see Mr.
 Treay once more and extended to him a hearty welcome.

Mr. E. H. Hamilton, the photographer, is now at Calhoun, but will return to Hartford with his photographic studio for the fair, and will remain all winter.
 He will have a studio in the new building with a new and stylish building, and he will be glad to see his old friends and he will be glad to see his old friends and he will be glad to see his old friends.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, is condensed nutriment food for the building up of the system to resist the attacks of disease.
 It should be taken in reasonable doses all summer long by all those whose health is below the standard of health.
 If you are losing ground, try a bottle now.

Bring in your Produce.
 PATRONS.
 Jackson's summer Cakes at Carson
 & Co's.
 A new lot of children's Oxford in my color.
 I will paint your roof and guarantee satisfaction. See me about it.
 B. A. Crown.
 Buy your Groceries from Pat Brox.
 They always lead and never follow.

For the cheapest and best groceries in the market, call on A. D. White.
 When in town have your horse fed at Field's Livery Stable. Best of food—low prices.

A trimmed Hat—latest styles for children at 50c and 75c. and Ladies for $1.00 at Carson & Co's.
 Buy your Groceries from Pat Brox.
 They always have the freshest and cheapest goods on the market.

We want your Wool, Feathers, Eggs and Ostrich for which we will pay the highest market price. Carson & Co.
 We are glad to pay that Mrs. J.
 W. Black and daughter, Miss Josie, who for the past two weeks have been with us with cases of measles, are convalescing.

J. C. Budd, Son & Co., General Insurance, 227 St. Ann street, Owens-borough, Ky. Be sure and get your terms before leaving elsewhere, as you will find it to your advantage. 1911T

An ice cream supper will be given tomorrow night at the court house for the benefit of the Baptist church.
 Mrs. Mark Fair's Sunday school class. Every body cordially invited.

Thomas Stratton, living three miles north of Hartford, lost a fine revolver from his pocket last Wednesday.
 A tramp is supposed to have obtained possession of it in the absence of the owner. 1911T

On account of the grand Masonic fish-fry at Rockport, Ky., June 9th, 1897, tickets will be on sale June 6th.
 From Beaver Dam to Rockport, tickets for 25 cents, good till June 6th to return.

Sherriff C. P. Keown accompanied by Constable C. E. Morrison, called on George O. Whitaker and Albert Austin to the Edgelyville prison last Saturday.
 The former to serve one and the latter two years.

It is with pleasure that we are enabled to announce that Mr. W. L.
 Graves will soon be likely more to be a local factor here as he has as he is now at timber here on hand at Horse Branch.

The ice cream and strawberry supper given by the ladies of the Methodist church was largely successful and proved to be a success in the fullest sense of the word. The receipts amounted to $25.

Fishing is now at its best. We have noticed several large strings of fish that have been caught in Rough river.
 Lovers of the piscatorial art are seeking every opportunity to hunt the most likely spots frequented by the fishy tribe.

A long list of names has been applied for the new brick building of the State Fidelity Guarantee Co., recently erected. See the advertisement of Mr. T. H. Smith Co., in another column of "if you are interested in making any kind of loan."

Mr. Mitt Cramm and Miss Ada Duke, youngest daughter of Mr. I. N. Duke, were married at 8 o'clock p. m. last evening at 8 o'clock p. m. Mr. Cramm is a prosperous farmer and we congratulate him on winning the heart and hand of such estimable lady.

Capt. G. F. Stekney, of Bowling Green, arrived in Hartford last Saturday and went down on the Janie to Rockport. He is on his way to the much needed work of clearing the river banks of timber wood soon to be begun and pushed to completion.

A Grand Masonic fish-fry at Rockport, Ky., will be held on Sunday, June 9th, at 8 o'clock p. m. A great time is expected. Public address by J. O. M. Judge R. H. Thompson, author of "The Fish-fry," will be given at 8 o'clock p. m. One free from north trip on the C. & R. R. from all points between Louisville, Owensboro and Greenville.

Judge J. S. Glenn, Hon. C. M.
 Barnett, Messrs. J. P. Sanderson, J. W. Wilson, E. T. Miller, Shelby
 Taylor, C. M. Crum, C. M. M.
 Sanderson, David Miller, J. P.
 Thomas, Wayne Bender and Carline Bender, left Hartford this morning for Green River to spend the week in hunting and fishing. They pitched tents three miles below Cromwell.

Mr. J. Christ, of new Madison, this country is the possessor of one of the greatest flocks of nature ever known in this section of the country.
 It is a fine, healthy flock of about 1000 head of sheep. He has been in this flock three months ago when it was dropped. The flock is now in excellent health and is expected to be a great success. It is a fine, healthy flock of about 1000 head of sheep. He has been in this flock three months ago when it was dropped. The flock is now in excellent health and is expected to be a great success.

RICHARDSON FIRST.
 THIS COUNTY'S DELEGATES INSTRUCTED FOR READE'S MAN
 For Clerk of the Court of Appeals For Kentucky—Watson for Second Choice.

Sam Shackelford, of Davies County, Made a Third Fight but Only Succeeded in Getting Third Place.
 AN INTERESTING CONVENTION.

Pursuant to a call, the Democratic of Ohio county met at the Democratic Saturday for the purpose of selecting and instructing delegates to attend the State convention at Frankfort, Ky., on June 2nd, 1897, for the purpose of selecting a candidate for the office of clerk of the Court of Appeals. By the action of the convention E. Dudley Walker was selected as chairman and Harry Monroe as Secretary. On motion of Mr.
 Halloran a committee of five was appointed by the chair to draft resolutions.

The following resolution offered by G. B. Lienes was adopted, to-wit:
 "Resolved that all candidates be placed before the convention and the ballot taken for the purpose of selecting a candidate for the office of clerk of the court, and that the candidate who receives the majority of all the votes cast be declared the winner, and that the second choice be determined in same manner and so on so far as the convention chooses to instruct."

The committee on resolutions being ready to report presented the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:
 1st. Resolved, That we approve of the call of this convention and of the convention which is called to meet at Frankfort June 2nd.

2nd. Resolved, That we are still waiting for the "republican" who never came as promised as by the advocates of McKinley's election, and we feel the present depression in business of all kinds to be attributable to governmental causes for which Republicanism promises no reform and from which that party, bound by its present policy, offers no relief.

3rd. Resolved, That we approve and endorse the platform of the Democratic party as adopted at Chicago and we reiterate the declarations of the party in convention assembled in this county on the 2nd of April last.

4th. Resolved, That we view with pity and disgust the party effort made by Republicans to disrupt the party and the party and who gather fishing for a common cause and against the extravagance and mis-government of Republicanism and we declare it to be the duty of every man who feels delighted with the good times of which the Republican party has been the cause, to support and approve the rule by the few for the benefit of the masses to join in an effort to divide the forces which stand for good Government in this county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the Democratic party, and we declare it to be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to
 be the duty of every man who feels
 delighted with the good times of which
 the Republican party has been the cause,
 to support and approve the rule by the
 few for the benefit of the masses to join
 in an effort to divide the forces which
 stand for good Government in this
 county and for the rights of the many
 against the few, all the forces of the
 Democratic party, and we declare it to be the duty of every

